ADMINISTRATOR'S MEMORANDUM NO. 2

Delegation of Authority with respect to Labor Programs of the War Food AdministrationLIBRARY
CURRENT SERIAL RECORD

NOV 30 1943 ☆

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

1. Lt. Colonel Jay L. Taylor, Deputy Administrator, War Food Administration, shall, under the personal supervision and direction of the War Food Administrator, be responsible for all labor programs of the War Food Administration.
2. Mr. M. L. Wilson, Director of Extension Work, shall, under the immediate supervision and direction of Colonel Taylor, assist Colonel Taylor in discharging his responsibilities under the farm labor supply program, particularly with respect to the functions of the State Extension Services in the discharge of their obligations under the program as expressed in their agreements with the War Food Administrator entered into pursuant to Section 2 of H. J. Resolution 96.
3. Colonel Philip G. Bruton, Director of Interstate and Foreign Labor, shall, under the immediate supervision and direction of Colonel Taylor, assist Colonel Taylor in discharging his responsibilities under the farm labor supply program, particularly with respect to the administration of those phases of the program which relate to the supply and distribution of interstate and foreign labor.
4. There are hereby detailed to the office of Colonel Taylor such employees of the agencies of the War Food Administration as shall be mutually designated by the head of the agency and Colonel Taylor as necessary to the efficient administration of the program. These details shall be in line with the conditions of detail set out in Personnel Circular No. 112, Revision I, and shall be for temporary periods until such time as other arrangements may be made. Reimbursements for these details will be made from applicable funds, and employees so detailed for the period of the detail shall be under the immediate supervision and direction of the office to which they are detailed.
5. All memoranda in conflict with the provisions of this memorandum are hereby superseded to the extent of such conflict.

ADMINISTRATOR'S MEMORANDUM NO. 2 (Revised)

Office of Labor

1. There is hereby established in the War Food Administration an Office of Labor. All functions of the War Food Administration relating to labor, manpower, and wage stabilization are hereby consolidated into the Office of Labor.
2. Colonel Philip G. Bruton, Corps of Engineers, United States Army, with the consent of the Secretary of War, is hereby designated Deputy Administrator of the War Food Administration. Under the personal supervision and direction of the War Food Administrator, he shall supervise and direct all activities of the Office of Labor.
3. Mr. M. L. Wilson, Director of Extension Work, shall, under the immediate supervision and direction of Colonel Bruton, assist Colonel Bruton in discharging his responsibilities under the farm labor supply program, particularly with respect to the functions of the State Extension Services in the discharge of their obligations under the program as expressed in their agreements with the War Food Administrator, entered into pursuant to Section 2 of Public Law #45.
4. All funds available for carrying out the functions consolidated into the Office of Labor, and such of the personnel and property of the War Food Administration (exclusive of the Extension Service and inclusive of the Agricultural Labor Administration) as Deputy Administrator Bruton determines, are hereby transferred to the Office of Labor.
5. All memoranda in conflict with the provisions of this memorandum are superseded to the extent of such conflict.
